Arizona Department of Gaming Reports $42.6 Million in Tribal Gaming Contributions for the Second Quarter of Fiscal Year 2024

PHOENIX – The Arizona Department of Gaming (ADG) announced today $42,603,879 in tribal gaming contributions to the Arizona Benefits Fund for the second quarter of Fiscal Year (FY) 2024. This amount represents an approximate 2 percent increase when compared to the same quarter of FY 2023.

“We continue to see steady growth in the state’s tribal gaming industry, with consecutive record quarters of tribal contributions to the Arizona Benefits fund thus far in FY2024,” said Jackie Johnson, Cabinet Executive Officer, ADG. “These record levels of contributions further cement the strong partnership between the state and tribal partners, with over $2.1 billion in cumulative contributions to the state and its cities towns and counties since FY2004.”

The Arizona Benefits Fund receives 88 percent of tribal gaming contributions, providing significant dollars to support instructional improvement in schools, trauma and emergency care, tourism, and wildlife conservation throughout the state.
